Napa Valley Wine Train - Arts in April
“Inspiration Station” Art Show
April 1 – April 30, 2014

Are you or someone you know an artist who enjoys capturing the beauty of the Napa Valley in your work? The Napa Valley Wine Train (NVWT) is now inviting artists from Napa, Sonoma, and the Bay Area to enter work for their “Inspiration Station” Arts in April show, opening April 1, 2014. Work from all mediums will be considered. Pieces should reflect scenes, either real or imagined, of the landscape from the Napa Valley Wine Train, on the Wine Train, or of the Wine Train. No restrictions on size, but larger selected pieces may require outdoor installation.

NVWT arranges the show and has final say in the placement of work. NVWT will coordinate advertising and marketing of this show with the Arts Council Napa Valley and Visit Napa Valley. Email announcements will be sent to the Napa Valley Wine Train database plus mailings to individual artist’s contacts.

All exhibited work will be available for sale. NVWT, as the artist’s representative, will retain a 30% commission on any work sold. Work should be priced by the artist to reflect a pretax amount (the 8% sales tax will be added to the price and collected at time of sale). The price listed on the application is final and is not subject to change. Sold work may be taken by the purchaser at time of purchase.

The submission period is February 1 - March 10.

Submit your application via email or usps to:

cheryl@winetrain.com or

Napa Valley Wine Train

Attention: Cheryl Stotler
